

NELSON MARLBOROUGH

This section summarises the results of Nelson Marlborough DHB. *Indicates respondents could choose more than one option.

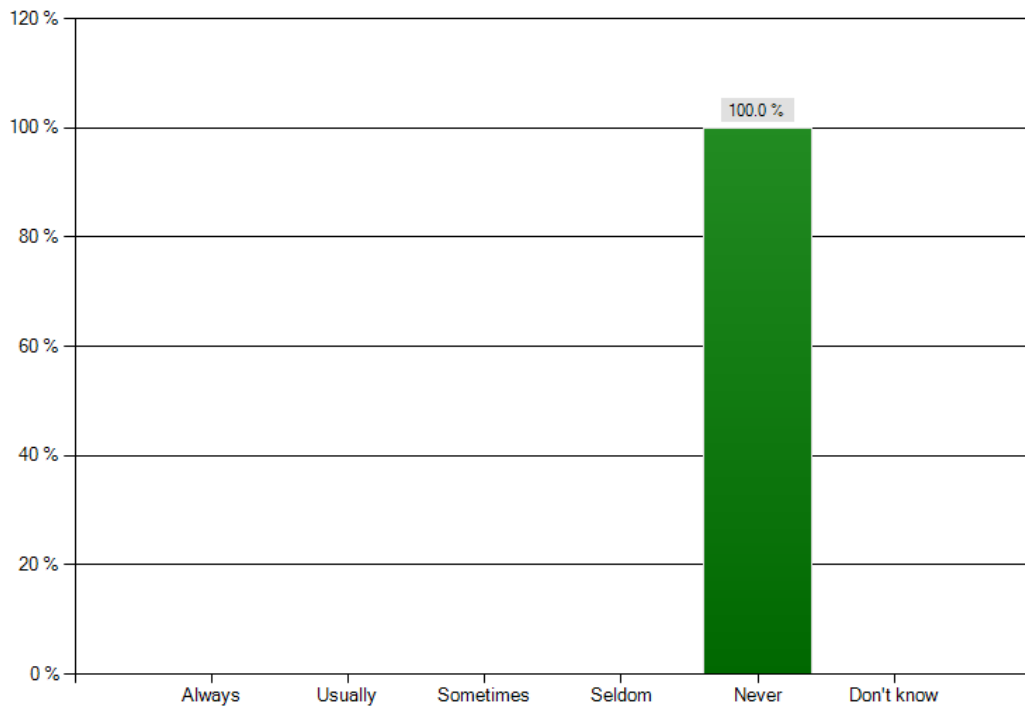

At our hospital House Officers are proficient when they start nights.

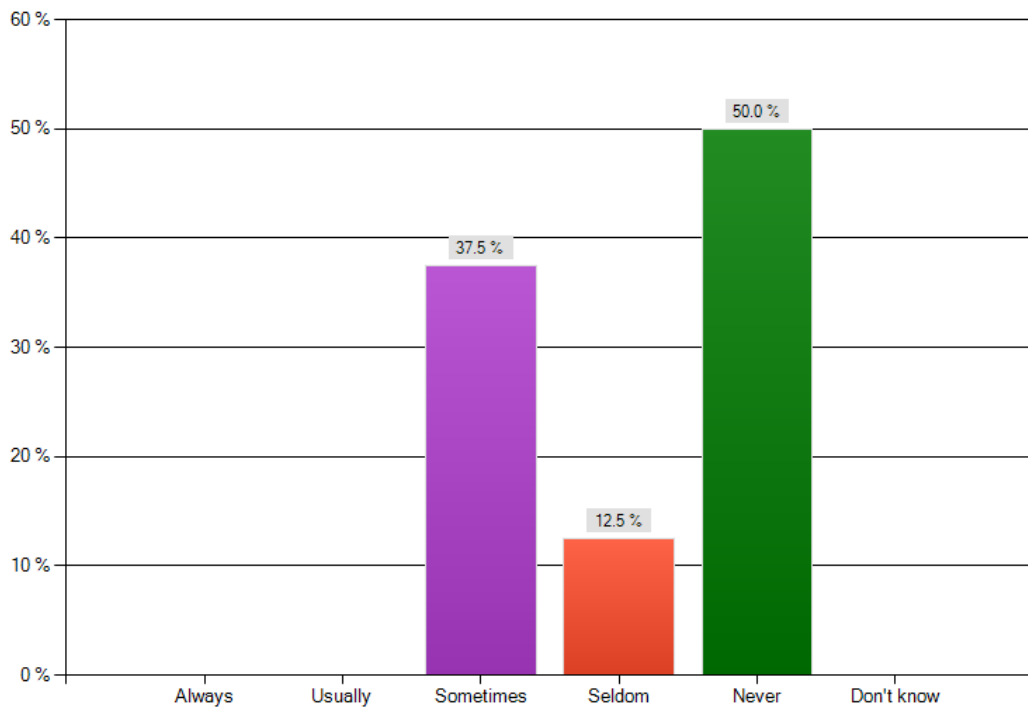

At our hospital House Officers are confident when they start nights.

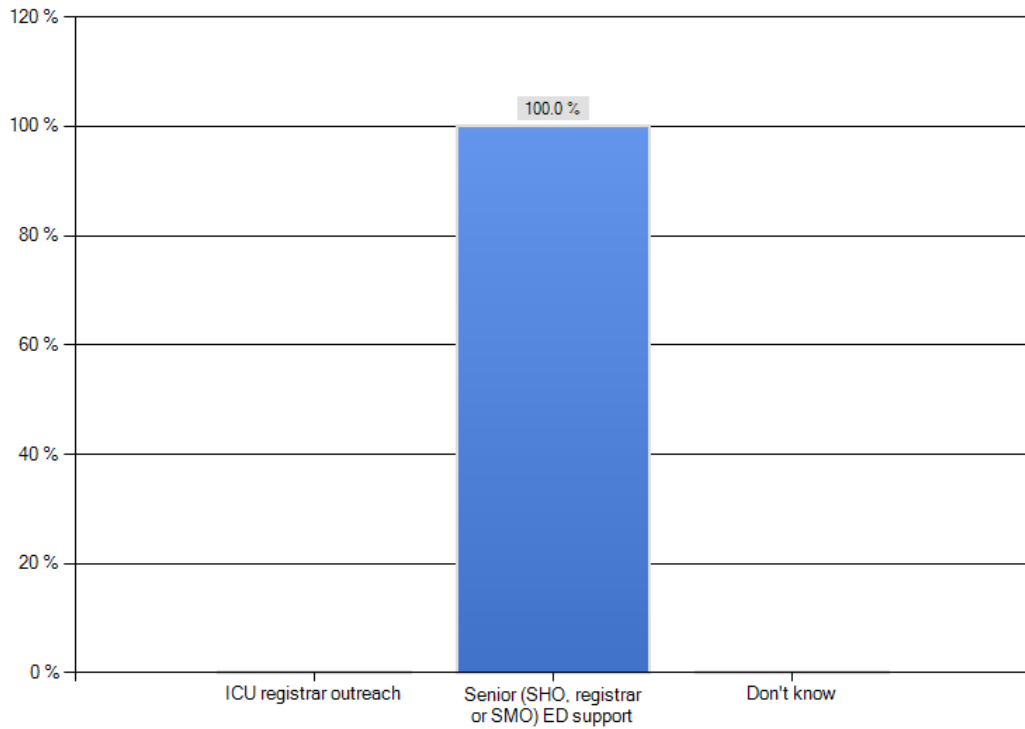

A medical registrar is available and able to provide direct supervision to house officers at night.

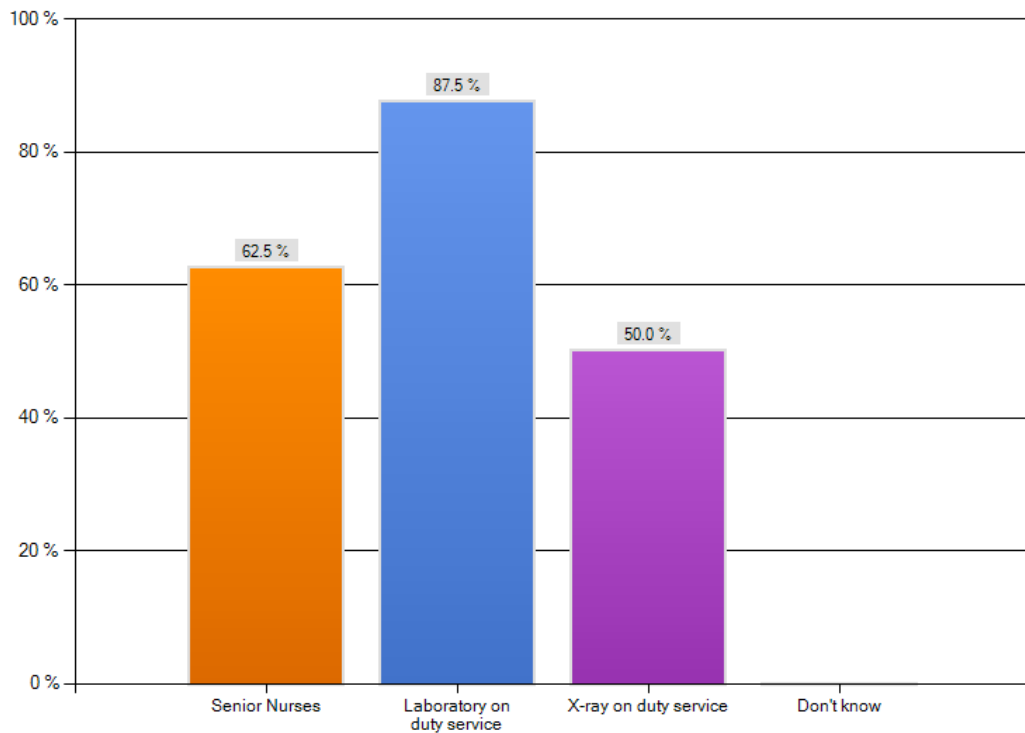

A surgical registrar is available and able to provide direct supervision to house officers when on nights.

There is additional medical support at night from the following (tick where appropriate).

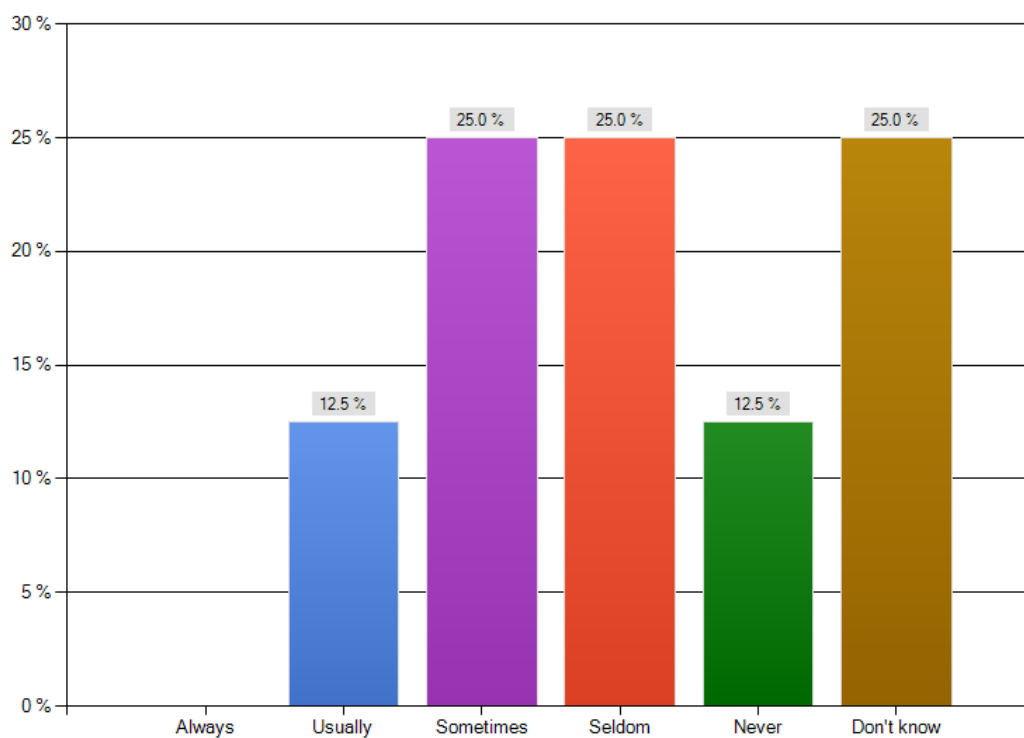

The following additional support staff are available on nights (tick where appropriate):-

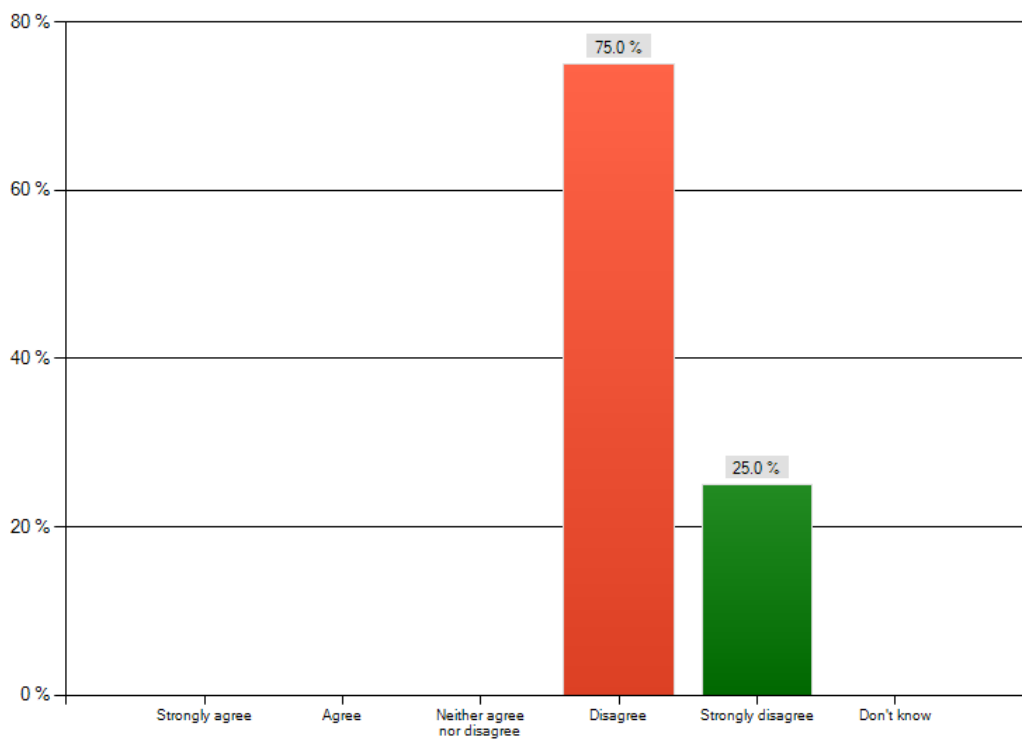

¹ Comments: "X-Ray and laboratory staff are able to be called in but are not on premises all night"; "Duty nurse manager"; "Does on duty mean they r on site or able to be called in?".

When on nights RMOs are required to only do what needs to be done.

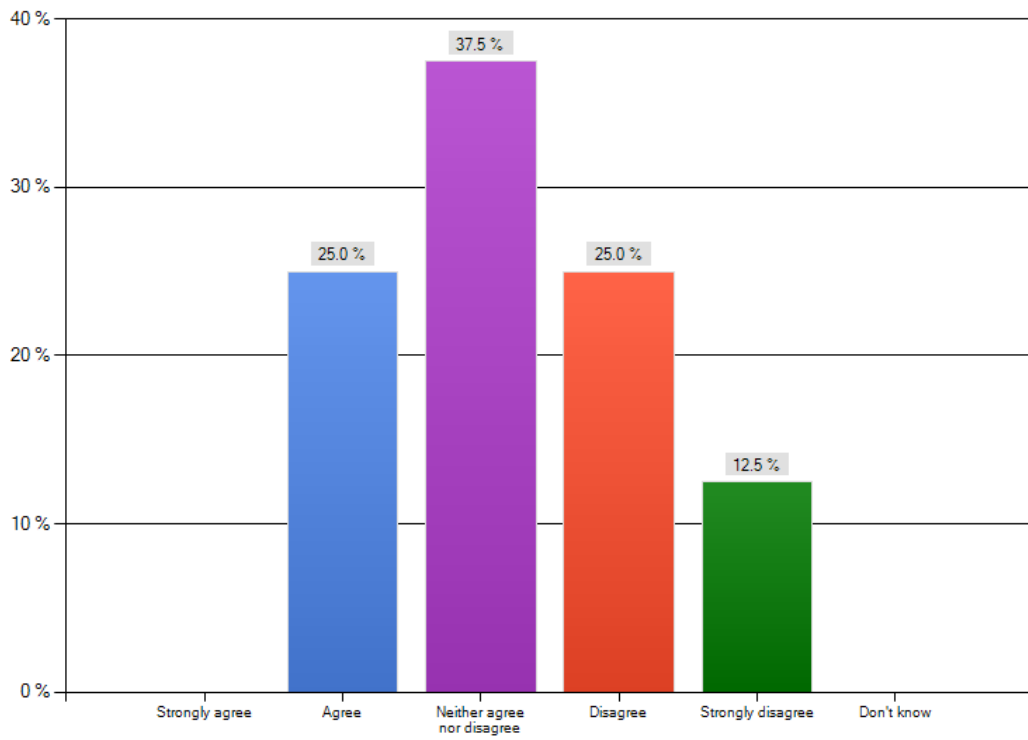

2 *

Overall medical staffing is at appropriate levels at night.

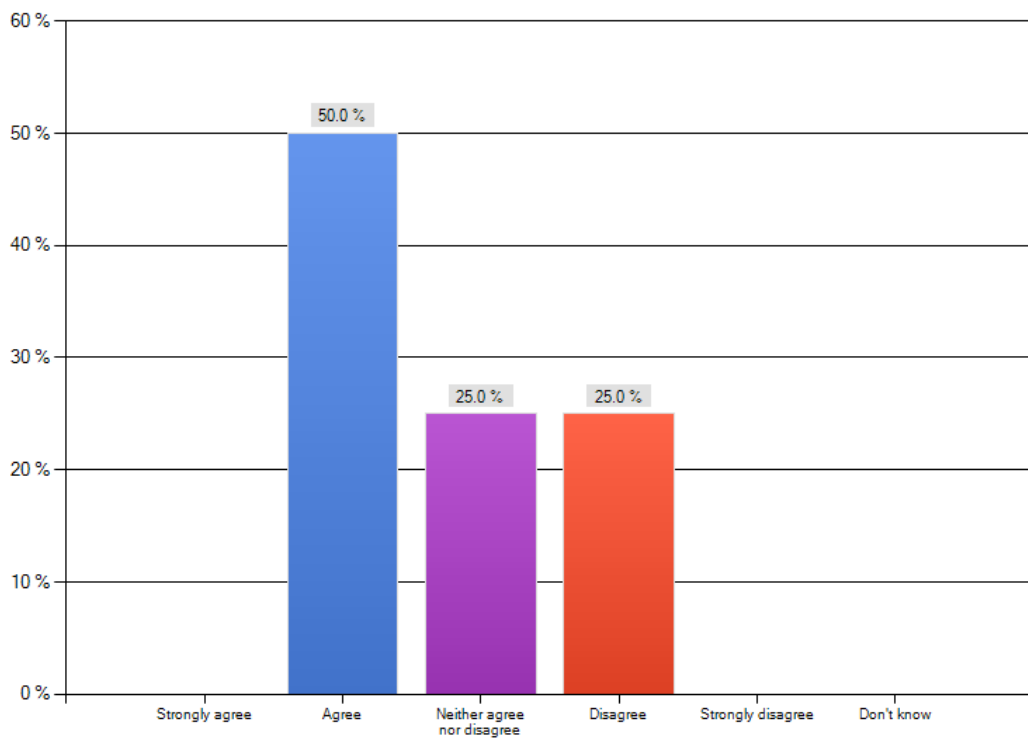

² Comments: "By phone call"; "ED house surgeon limited to the ED premise"; "By phone call".

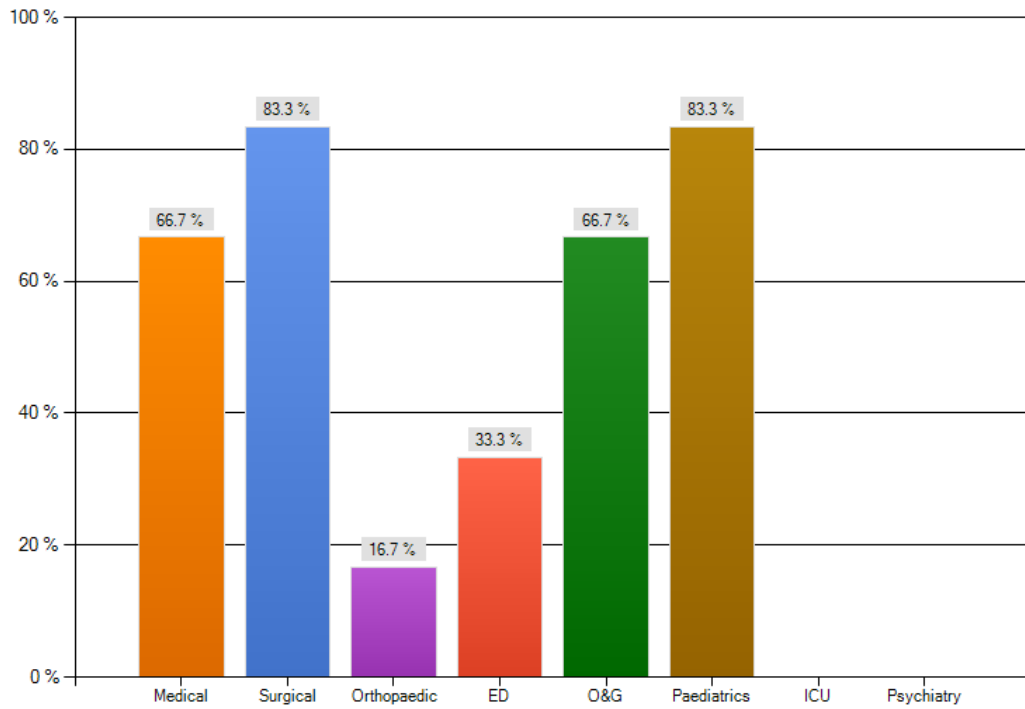

Handover is effective and supported.

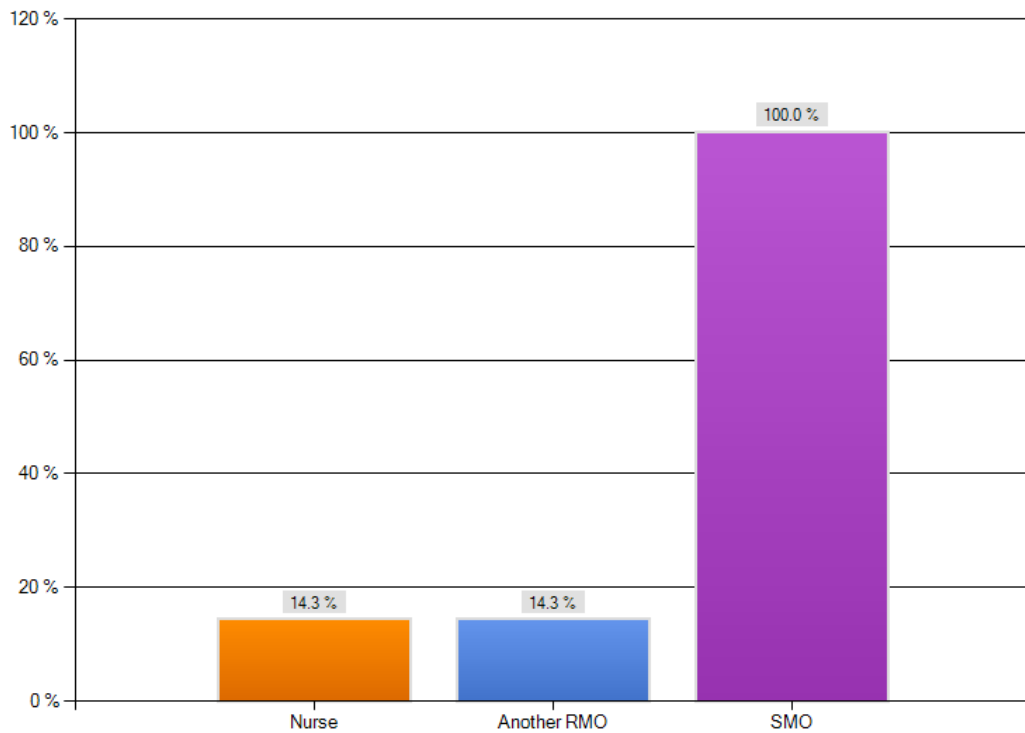

There are well established escalation processes if house officers need help.

If you answered "SMO" to the previous question please indicate below on which specialties are the SMOs approachable and responsive:

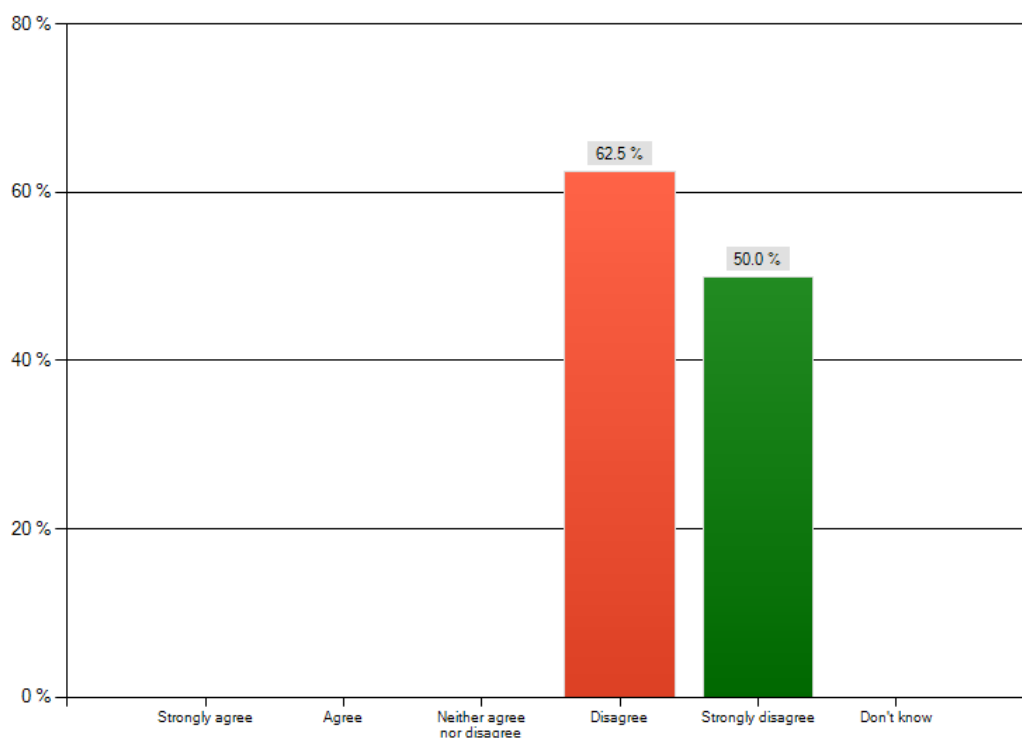

For support or assistance on nights do you call:-

3 *

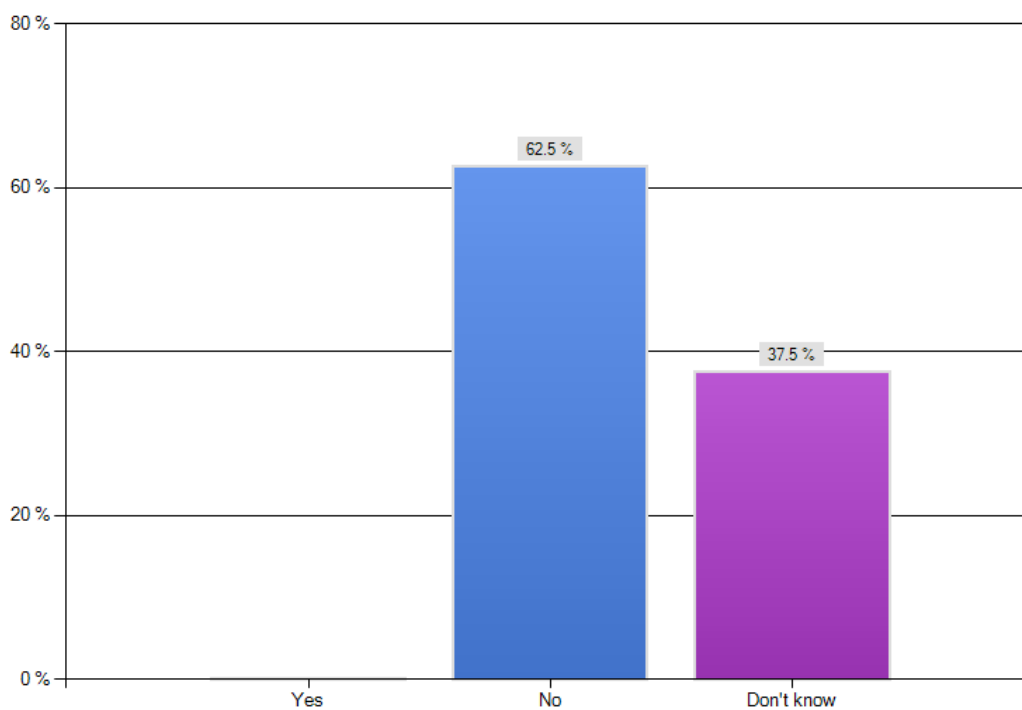

³ Comments: "Nurses with additional credentials to do IV cannula, urinary catheter insertion etc. NO nurse practitioners".

The house officers received adequate and appropriate orientation to nights.

4 *

Is there an assessment or audit process in place that monitors safety for RMOs and their patients on nights.

⁴ Comments: "SMO's approachability and responsiveness varies from consultant to consultant in each specialty, no one specialty is better than another"; "Anaesthetics. We have no specific intensivists in Nelson".